Our Mission

We aim to inform Texas A&M students and the Bryan/College Station community about the field of occupational therapy and the opportunities within it.

Safety Is Our Top Priority

Occupational Therapy Society (OTS) wants to remind you to be cognizant of your surroundings when choosing to volunteer or work independently in someone's home.

The shadow hours you need to apply for OT school require that you shadow an OT. Working and/or volunteering independently does not count toward OT shadowing hours. Volunteer hours can count toward another area of the application. If you have questions, then reach out to the pre-OT advisor at bmgarcia02@tamu.edu.

OTS' top priority is our members' safety.
